December 2, 2019

Dear Parents/Guardians:

The squadron's Annual Christmas Mess Dinner will be held on Friday, December 13 at Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 387, 12 Mill St, Frankford. This event provides an opportunity for your cadet to experience an important part of military customs and traditions.

ATTENDANCE AT THE MESS DINNER IS MANDATORY FOR ALL CADETS.

The cadets are to arrive not earlier than 6:00 pm and are to be picked up not later than 11:00 pm. Dress is full uniform with tunic and tie and ribbons if applicable. If your cadet has access to a white shirt and black bow tie, they may wear them with the uniform. See the attached diagram.

If your cadet has not been issued a uniform by the date of the dinner, civilian attire will be worn. There are a few rules for civilian dress. There will be NO jeans or t-shirts, male cadets WILL wear a shirt and tie. Female cadets WILL wear blouses/dresses with sleeves (cap sleeve at the minimum). Skirts and slacks MUST be worn at the waist not hanging off the hips or below and skirts WILL NOT be more than 1 (one) inch above the knee. There will be NO spaghetti straps or belly shirts. This event is SEMI-FORMAL and the above dress code is to be adhered to.

If your cadet has any special meal requirements, e.g. vegetarian or food allergies, please make note on the permission form.

After the dinner, there will be a dance for the cadets. Cadets may bring a change of clothes for the dance, but must follow the above rules for civilian dress.

Should you require any more information contact the squadron office on Monday evenings between 6:30 pm and 8:30 pm either in person or by phone.
