

704 Air Force City Squadron Royal Canadian Air Cadets

June 5, 2017

Dear Parents/Guardians & Cadets;

During the weekend of June 17 – 18, selected cadets will be participating in a citizenship trip to Ottawa, Ontario. Travel, accommodations and most meals will be provided by the squadron. Cadets will be required to purchase their supper on Sunday. At any time during the weekend, you can contact the squadron at 613-921-7047.

Cadets are to arrive at the parking lot of the RCAF Flyer's Arena, 240 RCAF Rd, Trenton at 6:30 am. Cadets should have breakfast prior to boarding the bus or bring a meal with them. Cadets will wear summer dress, which consists of the short sleeved light blue dress shirt (with name tag, appropriate rank slip-ons and ribbons, if applicable), pants & belt, grey wool socks & boots and wedge. Cadets can wear the fleece portion of the all season jacket if weather permits. Cadets will be in uniform for all tours during the weekend. See the attached kit list for other required items.

It is mandatory that your cadet have in their possession their Ontario Health Insurance Plan (OHIP) Card. The staff will collect them at the beginning of the exercise and keep them in a secure place during the trip. If the cadet arrives without their OHIP Card, they will not be permitted to board the bus. Cadets must bring the attached permission form on Saturday, June 17. If your cadet has any medical conditions or is taking any form of medication make certain it is noted on the permission form. Please send medications in the original packaging and only enough for the weekend.
